This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Hon. Wm. A. Richardson,

(H.U. 1843.)

Will of Samuel A. Way.

Know all men by these presents, That I, SAMUEL A. WAY, of Boston, in the County of Suffolk and Commonwealth of Massachusetts, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do make and publish this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills and codicils by me at any time heretofore made.

I appoint Charles G. Way [John Goldsbury, Henry D. Hyde], Asa P. Potter and Ellis W. Morton to be trustees of this my Will.

William A. Richardson substituted. See codicil 6, clause 5; and codicil 7, clause 10.

First. I bequeath to my dear wife, Sarah Ann Way, the use and enjoyment, during her life, of all the household furniture, plate, jewelry, books, horses, harnesses, carriages and stable furniture which may belong to me at my decease; and I bequeath the same, excepting the jewelry, after her decease, to my son, Charles G. Way, during his life; and upon his decease, then to any wife of my said son who shall survive him, during the life of any child of my said son, and while she shall be in occupation of my real estate on the corner of Mount Vernon Street and Beacon-hill Place under the provisions of this will hereinafter made; [and upon the decease of such wife of my said son, or upon the decease of my said son, if he shall leave no wife, then to the children of my said son absolutely.]

See codicil 7, clause 3.

I direct that my wife shall not be held to an overstrict account as to the goods herein bequeathed to her, and that she may make exchanges of the same.

The jewelry herein mentioned, upon the decease of my wife, shall be sold by the said trustees, and the proceeds held upon the charitable trust hereinafter created.

Second. I devise my real estate situate on the corner of Mount Vernon Street and Beacon-hill Place, so called, in said Boston, consisting of about 4,250 feet of land, with improvements thereon, being the same estate conveyed to me by Sereno D. Nickerson by his deed dated the 10th day of August, A. D. 1867, together with the use and enjoyment of so much of the land of my contiguous estate on the corner of Bowdoin Street and said Beacon-hill Place as may be within fifty (50) feet of the adjoining estate, late of John H. Pearson, to the sole and separate use of my wife, SARAH ANN WAY, for her life; and I devise the same, upon the decease of my said wife, unto my said son, CHARLES G. WAY, for his life, and upon my said son's decease, in case he shall leave a lawful child or children, then to the sole and separate use of any wife of my said son who shall survive him, for such time as any such child or children shall live: provided, that such wife of my said son shall occupy the said estate and premises as her residence; and her estate therein shall cease and be determined when such occupancy shall cease.

With an annuity of $6,000 per annum. Codicil 7, clause 2.

[And upon the decease of such wife of my said son, or upon the decease of my said son if he shall leave no wife, then I devise the same, excepting therefrom so much of the land of each of the said estates, to wit, the said estate on the corner of Mount Vernon Street and Beacon-hill Place and the said estate on the corner of Bowdoin Street and Beacon-hill Place, as may be within fifty (50) feet of the adjoining estate, late of John H. Pearson aforesaid, to the use of Charles G. Way, John Goldsbury, Henry D. Hyde, Asa P. Potter and Ellis W. Morton, their executors, administrators, heirs and assigns, upon trust, to convey the same in fee in equal shares to the lawful children of my said son, provided there shall be two or more such chil- dren, or to sell and dispose of the said real estate, in their discretion, and distribute the proceeds equally among said children, provided there shall be two or more such children. If there shall be but one such child, then one-half only of the fee of said estate shall be conveyed to such child, or one-half the proceeds given to such child in case of the sale or disposal of the said estate by said trustees.]

I devise, upon the decease of my said wife and of my said son and of any surviving wife of my said son, or upon the determination of such surviving wife's occupancy of the said estate on the corner of Mount Vernon Street and Beacon-hill Place, so much of the land of my said real estate situate on the corner of Mount Vernon Street and Beacon-hill Place and so much of the land of my contiguous estate situate on the corner of Bowdoin Street and Beacon-hill Place as may be within fifty (50) feet of the adjoining estate, late of John H. Pearson, to the use of the said CHARLES G. WAY [John Goldsbury, Henry D. Hyde], ASA P. POTTER and ELLIS W. MORTON, their executors, administrators, heirs and assigns, upon trust, to divide the said land into two equal lots of a width of twenty-five (25) feet, and running from said Mount Vernon Street to said Bowdoin Street.

WILLIAM A. RICHARDSON substituted. See codicil 6, clause 5; and codicil 7, clause 10.

The lot next to the said adjoining estate, late of John H. Pearson as aforesaid, they shall sell and take the proceeds resulting therefrom as residuary legatees upon the trust in this will created.

[The other lot they shall sell, and distribute the proceeds resulting from the sale thereof, equally among the lawful children of my said son, provided there shall be two or more such children; if there shall be but one such child, then one-half only of said proceeds shall be given to such child.] Revoked. See codicil 7, clause 3.

Third. I devise my real [estate] situate on the northerly corner of Harrison Avenue and Way Street in said Boston, consisting of about 1,875 feet of land, with improvements thereon, bounded on the north by the Boston and Albany Railroad, and on the east by land now or late of Timothy Eaton; and my real estate situate on the south corner of said Harrison Avenue and said Way Street, consisting of about 1,500 feet of land, with improvements thereon, bounded east by passage-way and south by land of the late Mr. Becker; and my real estate situate on said Way Street adjoining the said last mentioned estate (a passage-way being between them) consisting of about 2,500 feet of land, with improvements thereon, and being now occupied by Amasa W. Bailey [and my real estate To be kept insured by Trustees. Codicil 7, clause 4.

situate on the corner of Bowdoin Street and Beacon-hill Place in said Boston, excepting so much of the land thereof as may be within fifty (50) feet of the adjoining estate, late of John H. Pearson, which said excepted land is herein before disposed of], to the use of the said CHARLES G. WAY [John Goldsbury, Henry D. Hyde], ASA P. POTTER and ELLIS W. MORTON, their executors, administrators, heirs and assigns, upon the following trusts; that is to say: they shall pay out of the net yearly profits of said estates one thousand (1,000) dollars per annum, in equal quarterly payments, to the sole and separate use of any wife of my son, CHARLES G. WAY, during the life of my said son; they shall pay five hundred (500) dollars per annum, in equal quarterly payments, to EDWIN FOBES, during his life; and they shall pay, in equal quarterly payments, unto my son, CHARLES G. WAY, during his life, so much of the balance (including either or both the said last mentioned annuities if they expire during the life of my said son) of the said yearly profits as shall be sufficient to cover all the living and expenditures of my said son; and if it appears to them that he does not annually consume a sum equal to the whole of said balance, they shall annually give such a proportion of said balance as appears to them to exceed the sum used yearly by my said son for his living and expenditures, to such charities as he may direct, or, in default of any direction from him, to such charities as to them may seem good, it being my will that my son may receive and expend the whole of said balance if he shall desire so to do, but that he shall not accumulate money and thereby accumulate cares and perplexities. After the decease of my said son, they, the said trustees, after deducting the amount of the annuity to EDWIN FOBES so long as it shall be in force, shall pay of the balance of the said net yearly profits of said estates one-half, in equal quarterly payments, to the sole and separate use of any wife of my said son who shall survive him, during her life, provided my said son shall leave a lawful child or children; but if he shall leave no such child, then they shall pay to her one-third instead of one-half of said profits,

[and they shall apportion the other half in equal shares to and among the lawful children of my said son, provided there are two or more such children, employing and applying in their discretion the share of any minor child during such child's minority as shall appear to them most beneficial for such child, and paying directly, in equal quarterly payments, to any child who shall have attained the age of twenty-one years, his or her share. If there shall be but one lawful child of my said son, such child shall be entitled in manner aforesaid to a moiety only of said last mentioned "other half." Upon the decease of such surviving wife of my said son, or upon the decease of my said son if he shall leave no wife, the said trustees shall convey the said estates in fee, charged, however, with the aforementioned annuity to Edwin Fobes, in equal shares to the lawful children of my said son, provided there shall be two or more such children; or shall sell or dispose of the said estates, in their discretion, and distribute the proceeds, first providing for the payment of said annuity equally among said children, provided there shall be two or more such children. If there shall be but one such child, then one-half only of the said estates shall be conveyed to such child, or one-half the proceeds in case of the sale or disposal of the said estates by the said trustees, and the payment of the annuity shall be apportioned.]

To be kept insured by Trustees. Codicil 7, clause 4.

Fourth. I devise my land situate on Bowdoin Street in said Boston, with my stable thereon, to the sole and separate use of my wife, SARAH ANN WAY, for her life, and upon her decease to my son, CHARLES G. WAY, for his life, and upon his decease then to the sole and separate use of any wife of my said son who shall survive him, during such time as such wife may be in occupation of the estate on the corner of Mount Vernon Street and Beacon-hill Place under the previous provisions of this will, and then the said land and stable shall be taken and considered as a part of and shall pass with and belong to the estate adjoining, hereinafter devised to JAMES E. SHELDON, and the estate here devised shall be subject, from my decease, to an easement as hereinafter mentioned lying.

Subject to an easement of will. See clause 8.

Fifth. I devise all my real estate in Rochester, in the State of Vermont, to the sole and separate use of my mother, LETTICE C. WHITTON, for her life, and upon her decease, then in fee to the children of my sister, MARTHA JANE THOMAS, of Randolph in said Vermont.

[Sixth. I devise all my real estate situate in Dover Place in said Boston, consisting of certain land, with three brick houses and one four-story brick building, having a store under the same, thereon, and my real estate situate in said Boston bounded north by Myrtle Street 37 ft. 8¾ in., east by Hancock Street 40 ft. 1¼ in., south by land late of the heirs of Hall 38 ft. and west by land late of Gregory 39 ft. 9 in., to the use of the said Charles G. Way, John Goldsbury, Henry D. Hyde, Asa P. Potter and Ellis W. Morton, their executors, administrators, heirs and assigns, upon trust, to pay, in equal quarterly payments, to the sole and separate use of Abby H. Beal, formerly betrothed to my late eldest son, Francis C. Way, during her life, the net yearly profits thereof, deducting therefrom during the life of my late domestic, Catharine Mullen, the sum of two hundred (200) dollars per annum, which said sum shall be appropriated to the benefit of the said Catharine Mullen according to the direction and discretion of the said Abby H. Beal and the said trustees; and upon the further trust, upon the decease of the said Abby H. Beal, to convey the said estates in fee, in equal shares, to the children of the said Abby H. Beal, or to sell and dispose of the said estates in their discretion and distribute the proceeds thereof equally among said children. The said trustees shall, however, provide out of said estates for the payment of two hundred (200) dollars per annum to the said Catharine Mullen during her life.]

Revoked. See codicil 7, clause 5.

[Seventh. I devise my real estate situated on Way Street, in said Boston, consisting of about 1,250 feet of land, with a house thereon numbered

11, bounded east by land of Mrs. Toppin, south by a passage-way and west by my adjoining lot, being one lot of land on the Plan of South Cove, to the sole and separate use of my wife's sister, Delia A. Sheldon, for the life of the said Delia A. Sheldon, and upon her decease then to the children of the said Delia A. Sheldon in fee.]

Eighth. I devise my real estate situate on Bowdoin Street, in said Boston, consisting of certain land, with a house thereon, purchased by me of the heirs of T. J. Eckley, the said land measuring about thirty feet on Bowdoin Street and being about forty-two feet deep, with a right of passage-way on the north side and in the yard in the rear, with a right of light over said yard and a right to hang clothes on the adjoining building north, to JAMES E. SHELDON, for his life, and upon his decease then in equal shares to the children of said JAMES E. SHELDON in fee. With the consent of four of the trustees of this will, the said JAMES E. SHELDON may sell and give a good title in fee to the herein devised estate and re-invest the proceeds in such other real estate as four of the said trustees shall approve. The said trustees shall see to such re-investment and that the transmission and succession of any real estate in which such proceeds may be invested is secured to the children of the said JAMES E. SHELDON after his decease.

Ninth. I devise and bequeath all of the residue and remainder of the real and personal estate of every name, nature and description, which shall belong to me at my decease, and all future remainders and residues of every name, nature and description, unto and to the use of the said CHARLES G. WAY [John Goldsbury, Henry D. Hyde], ASA P. POTTER and ELLIS W. MORTON, their executors, administrators, heirs and assigns, upon the following trusts; that is to say:

1. The said trustees shall therefrom provide for, and without delay make prompt payment of, all my just and legal debts and funeral charges.

2. The said trustees shall therefrom provide for the exoneration of the real estate herein before devised under the clauses "Second," "Third," "Fourth," "Fifth," "Sixth," "Seventh" and "Eighth" of this will from all mortgages and incumbrances upon the same, such exoneration to be made when they shall deem it expedient: provided, however, that all interest shall be paid when due.

thousand (10,000)] dollars to my wife, SARAH ANN WAY, during her life, which said annuity they shall pay to her sole and separate use, in equal quarterly payments. If at any time my said wife shall request to receive seven thousand (7,000) dollars in gold in lieu of the said "ten thousand (10,000) dollars," the said trustees shall make such substitution and payments in gold in compliance with such request. The provisions made in this will for my wife are in lieu of, and to be taken instead of, dower and such other legal rights and interests as she may have in my estate. It is my earnest desire that my wife may not permit any of her income to accumulate, as I believe such accumulation will be accompanied with a corresponding increase of cares and annoyances. I therefore request that such part of her income as may not be consumed by her expenditures may be annually devoted by her to charities.

4. The said trustees shall therefrom provide for the payment to each of the following named persons, during their respective lives, of a clear annuity of two hundred (200) dollars; that is to say: to my mother, LETTICE C. 11. The said trustees shall pay therefrom the following legacies to the following named persons; that is to say: to each of the children of my brothers, ADDISON M. WAY and JOHN M. WAY, they shall pay five hundred (500) dollars; to each of the children of my brother, JASPAR F. FERDINAND, they shall pay, upon such child's majority, the sum of two thousand (2,000) dollars, with interest added from the day of my decease, or the said trustees may, in their discretion, apply the interest to the education of such minor children respectively; to each of the children of my sister, MARTHA JANE THOMAS, they shall pay the sum of two thousand (2,000) dollars; to Mrs. JAMES HUBBARD WAY they shall pay to her sole and separate use the sum of one hundred (100) dollars; to ETTA WARD they shall pay, upon her marriage, the sum of one hundred (100) dollars; to my former partner, ASA P. and faithful services as collector of rents; to my deserving clerk, JOHN DELA, they shall pay the sum of two thousand and five hundred (2,500) dollars; to my meritorious clerk, CHARLES J. KELLOGG, they shall pay the sum of two thousand and five hundred (2,500) dollars; to ELLIS W. MORTON they shall pay the sum of five thousand (5,000) dollars, in recognition of his fair defence of my rights when it was sought to deprive me of them by extraordinary legislation; to my clerk, TRUMAN G. EDWARDS, they shall pay the sum of two thousand and five hundred (2,500) dollars.

12. After satisfying the requirements of the herein before mentioned trusts, enumerated under clause "Ninth" of this will, the said trustees shall hold and apply the balance of the property that shall remain in, or at any time come to their hands under and by virtue of this will upon trust for the benefit of the NEEDLEWOMEN OF THE CITY OF BOSTON, in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the application of the same to be made, as far as shall seem practicable to the said trustees, in the exercise of their sound discretion, in the manner herein suggested.

My design is to ameliorate to some extent the condition of the large class of industrious women of the said city who gain their livelihood by sewing. As the chief embarrassments to which this class of persons are exposed result from a failure of employment at certain seasons, and a scarcity of suitable dwelling places, it is my wish that they may be relieved by a supply of work when ordinary sources fail, and by the provision of houses containing convenient, healthful apartments specially adapted to their accommodation.

My principal object is to help workers to constant employment at fair prices, and to desirable houses at fair rents.

When, however, the realization of this object is so far effectuated that the said trustees shall consider that, in the furtherance of my design, direct charitable aid may be properly extended to those in need, who may be unable to work, I desire that such aid may be bestowed under suitable limitations.

Except under extraordinary circumstances, it is my wish that such aid shall not be offered to any one person for a longer period than three successive months, preferring rather to extend temporary relief to the casually necessitous, than to provide for other cases which are better met by the liberal beneficence of our many charitable institutions.

I suggest that the said trustees create from the property held on this trust, two funds, of such proportionate amounts as may seem expedient, one to be regarded as a labor fund and the other as a building fund; that these two funds be allowed to accumulate, if necessary, but as soon as practicable they be employed respectively in supplying work and building houses.

The supply of work may be provided by investing capital in undertaking the manufacture and sale of the various descriptions of goods produced by sewing women. Stores and salesrooms may be opened, or goods may be manufactured upon contracts. They are, however, to be manufactured at times when sewing women are most in want of employment.

The houses to be erected should be sufficiently large to be built economically; they should be conveniently arranged, with ample provisions for light and air, and be pleasantly located. Apartments should be let to sewing women at fair paying rents and the proceeds applied in carrying out the intentions I have expressed.

The foregoing suggestions will serve as an indication of my purpose. The development of my design, and the details of the plan of operations, I leave entirely to the said trustees. To this end they may associate themselves in any lawful manner, under act of incorporation, or otherwise, as they shall consider most advantageous.

In case any contingency shall at any time arise respecting any of the real estate devised in this will, in which it shall obviously be for the great advantage of the property and of all parties interested therein, to have the exercise of powers and authority not included in the terms of the devise of such estate, then the person or persons having the beneficial interest in such estate for the time being, together with the said trustees, acting unanimously, shall have full power and authority to alter, mortgage, lease, sell or make any other disposition of the whole or a part of such real estate.

Any instrument executed under this power shall be signed by the person or persons aforesaid, or their guardian or guardians, and by all of the said trustees. And in case of the exercise of such power and authority, the said trustees shall so far keep the matter in their control as to effectuate the designs of my will, whether by reinvestment or otherwise; and they shall faithfully secure the interests of every person intended to be favored or benefited by the devise of such estate.

I direct that the said trustees shall have full power and authority to sell and convey, and convert and manage, in their discretion, all the real and personal estate devised and bequeathed to them in the "Ninth" clause of this will; and to make such investments and changes of the same as from time to time they shall deem most beneficial.

I direct that the said trustees shall have power and authority, if they shall consider it for the interest of my estate, to delay the payment of any legacies for any period not exceeding five years, interest on the same to be added after the expiration of one year from the day of my decease.

I direct that the said trustees shall have power at their discretion, to settle my accounts and wind up my affairs, and in so doing make any arrangement relative to debts or demands due, or claimed to be due, to or from my estate, as they shall judge expedient, with liberty to accept compositions and submit questions to arbitration.

I direct that the said trustees shall close up and settle the business in which I may be engaged at the time of my decease, as soon as possible.

I direct that the said trustees may deduct, and mutually allow to each other, all disbursements and expenses incident to the execution of this will, and shall be responsible each for his own acts and defaults only, and irresponsible for losses occurring without wilful error, neglect or default, and shall be indemnified with or out of my trust property against all liabilities consequential on the execution of this will.

I direct that every vacancy in the trusteeship of this will, however occasioned (whether in my lifetime or after my decease), shall be supplied as soon as may be by the appointment of a fit substitute (not a member of the legal profession); such appointment to be made by the continuing trustee or trustees, and to be confirmed by a judge of the Supreme Judicial Court of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, upon the said judge's being satisfied of the capacity and integrity of such appointee; but no substitute or successor shall be appointed in place of Charles G. Way.

I further direct that upon such appointment my said trust property shall be vested as the case may require, in the new trustee or trustees.

I direct that the trusts and powers herein before confided to the said trustees herein appointed (who are herein before mentioned or referred to as "the said trustees"), may be executed by the trustees or trustee of this will for the time being.
